Piramal Sunteck Realty ropes in Sussanne Roshan as interior design partner

■ Business Bureau

PIRAMAL Sunteck Realty Private Limited has partnered for interior designing with Sussanne Roshan's plush interiors brand The Charcoal Project, for its maiden elite property in city Signia Skys. The tie-up will offer elite denizens a taste of exclusive high living which was previously accessible only to the aristocratic circles in large metros.

Signia Skys located at Sadar, Chhaoni is a premium 10-storey property designed to elevate the luxury quotient of city and will offer 'Limited Edition Designer Residences' that extend the experience of superlative residential luxury to the residents. The project houses spacious residences, which are ready for fit-outs and nearing possession.

The project also has amenities that city has never witnessed before like a landscaped garden themed on promoting global ethos, live kitchen, an outdoor swimming pool, gymnasium, Jacuzzi, sauna, banquet hall, yoga centre and an advanced home theatre.

However the indulgence doesn't stop here as residents can now choose to custom design their homes with a well reputed and elite designer house. The brainchild of Sussanne Roshan, The Charcoal Project was set up in 2011 and offers a refreshing look at curated interior design.
